Noticeboard – Sharing Information, Events and Updates in Patient and Public Involvement

To request to feature on the Noticeboard, please contact sally.taylor@nice.org.uk

We delighted to announce two new exciting positions in NICE's Public Involvement Programme (PIP), based in our Manchester office. The Programme's role is develop and supports opportunities for people and communities (including patient, voluntary and community sector organisations) to work across all of NICE's work programmes. The two new posts have been created to enhance our public involvement activities as NICE's portfolio of work continues to expand.

PIP Business Manager – NHS AfC Band 7, Manchester

The Business Manager post is new to the PIP and will be a key role in ensuring that the programme runs smoothly and meets its business objectives. The Business Manager will develop and maintain the systems and process that underpin the work of the team. They will ensure that progress against business targets is recorded and reported, and develop Service Level Agreements between the PIP team and other team in NICE to formalise those working relationships. Finally, the Business Manager will also be responsible for managing the recruitment of lay members to NICE committees and working with other teams to run an efficient recruitment process that meets the needs of lay people and the PIP team.

We are looking for someone who enjoys developing processes and systems, has an eye for detail and is a master with Microsoft Excel. The postholder will also need strong negotiating skills and the ability to influence and change working practices, working both with peers and more senior colleagues. The successful candidate will need to be solution-focused and able to bring together varying practices and priorities to develop pragmatic solutions that deliver our business objectives.

Vacancy closes midnight on 12/08/2018
